

The MSR Research Consortium is a wonderful opportunity to inquire, share and learn with like-minded colleagues!

Morning session: interact with a panel of MSR expert researchers discussing the Interface of Business, Ethics & Spirituality and the contribution of spirituality to the practice of business ethics.

Afternoon session: benefit from break out groups to share research projects, network and receive feedback from peers and renowned MSR authors.

We will discuss methodologies, the challenges and opportunities of the publishing process, international MSR events and the interfaces with diverse fields of research and AOM divisions.

3rd Annual Research & Publishing Consortium

Most Promising Dissertation Awards
