

Call for chapter proposals for:
Proposed Routledge Companion to Leadership and Change
Edited by Satinder Dhiman

Given the ever-growing and widespread importance of leadership in general (and the role of leadership in initiating change in particular) and the general broad scope of this project, the editor envisions this Companion as a key reference work in the field of leadership and change management in business and various other allied fields. The uniqueness of this Companion lies in its anchorage in the moral and spiritual dimension of leadership, an approach most relevant for contemporary times and organizations.

This Companion represents an important milestone in the perennial quest for discovering the best leadership models and change practices to suit the contemporary organizations.

A. Leadership:

The suggested chapter proposals will pertain to one or more of the following sections:

1. Leadership Theories
2. Leadership Styles/Types
3. Leading Teams and Groups effectively
4. Gender Issues in Leadership
5. Developing Talent, Mentoring, and Succession
6. Dark Side of Leadership
7. Motivation and Engagement
8. Leaders: Past and Present
9. Emerging Trends in Leadership

B. Change Management:

The suggested chapter proposals will pertain to one or more of the following sections:

- Leading during time of Uncertainty and Change
- Understanding people's Resistance to Change
- Organizational Culture, Innovation and Creativity
- Organizational Change and Agility
- Managing Change in Disruptive Technology and AI
- Emerging Trends in Change Management